

Call for Bids to host the 13th International Mycological Congress in 2028

Dear Fellow Mycologists,

The International Mycological Association invites all Regional Mycological Member Organizations, Sustaining Member Mycological Organizations, and National Mycological Member Organizations to submit a proposal to hold the 13th International Mycological Congress in 2028.

Deadline for receipt of pre-proposals must not be later than Aug 2023. More information about the bidding process can be found at <http://www.ima-mycology.org/society/statutes>.

The proposal should provide information on the bidding Mycological Organization, the Country, the proposed location, the proposed venue, the proposed local organizing committee, possible supporting local and government organizations, possible sponsors, cultural activities, etc.

Full proposals to host IMC13 must be received by the Secretary-General, Jennifer Luangsa-ard (jajen@biotec.or.th) for distribution to the Executive Committee not later than January 31, 2024 (six months before the IMC12).

With best wishes,

Prof. Dr. rer. nat. Wieland Meyer
President of International Mycological Association (IMA)
